COLLINS CONSULTING, INC. RECEIVES ISO 9002:1994 RECERTIFICATION

Today, Collins Consulting, Inc. announced that it has been received under the ISO9002:1994 standard. The critical elements of the ISO 9002 standard - Quality Systems - Model for Quality Assurance in Production, Installation, and Servicing include: defined quality standards and goals, systematic procedures and training, performance monitoring, client satisfaction monitoring, management review; document control and internal and external auditing systems. "Implementation of the ISO 9002:1994 quality system at Collins Consulting, Inc. is part of our ongoing commitment to provide a reliable, quality service for our customers" says Robert Collins, President of Collins Consulting, Inc. "Meeting our customer needs in a timely, quality manner is key to success in the IT staff augmentation business."

The International Organization for Standardization (ISO) promotes the development of quality standards worldwide, for the purpose of improved operating efficiency, improved productivity and reduced cost. The standards consist of generic quality system requirements that can be used for external quality assurance purposes.
